

Citations Cheat Sheet

A complete Works Cited. This should appear on your final slide. Every image, sound clip, song, and articles must be included, so you need to keep track of these as you go.

There are several citation-creating sites.

❖ If you are not sure how to use one of these sites, actually reading the page can be very helpful! ☺

For example-Go to EasyBib.com, select MLA. Then simply follow the directions on the screen until you have something like this:

Alexie, Sherman, and Ellen Forney. The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-time Indian. New York:

Little, Brown and, 2009. Print.

✓ YOU SHOULD NOTICE IN THE EXAMPLE ABOVE THAT THE FIRST LINE IS AT THE MARGIN AND THE SECOND LINE IS INDENTED. THIS IS CALLED A HANGING INDENT. ALL OF YOUR CITATIONS SHOULD LOOK LIKE THIS!

✓ YOU SHOULD ALSO NOTICE THAT THE CITATION IS DOUBLE SPACED.

Next, I have a sample citation for an image. Again using Easy Bib, this time selecting website, I do as instructed and paste the web address into the space provided. I end up with this:

"Sherman Alexie's The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian." Brain Dump. Web. 09

May 2011. <<http://langandlitbraindump.blogspot.com/2010/09/sherman-alexies-absolutely-true-diary.html>>.

Now I'm citing a music clip:

"Freeplay Music: Search Production Music Library." Freeplay Music, Broadcast Production

Music Library, Free and Mp3 Music Downloads, See Usage Terms. Web. 09 May 2011.

<http://freeplaymusic.com/search/category\_search.php?sindex=1>
